Lesson 21: Gestures and movement in worship.
Lesson 22 – What is a Sacrament.
Lesson 23 – Sacraments in the Catholic Church
Lesson 24 – The Church as a Sacrament

In these lessons I have learned about:
- The place of gestures and movement in prayer and worship.
- to have a deeper understanding of Sacrament
- to become familiar with the 7 sacraments of the Catholic Church.
- the Church as a sacrament of God’s love for us.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME</th>
<th>DATE _________ Class ____________</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

This is what I learned about the Hindus gestures and movement in prayer:
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

This is what I learned about gestures and movement in Muslim’s prayer:
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

I learned that a sacrament is:
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

These are the symbols with which I represent these sacraments:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Baptism</th>
<th>Marriage/ Matrimony</th>
<th>Reconciliation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Eucharist</td>
<td>Holy Orders</td>
<td>Sacrament of the Sick</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The sacraments we have in my church are:

I know my church is a sacrament of God’s love for us because

What I learned from the lessons on sacraments is

What I learned about the corporal works of mercy is:

What I learned about the spiritual works of mercy is:

What I would like to learn more about is: