LIFEBOUND - GRADE 7 - EVALUATION / SELF ASSESSMENT SHEET
Process: Education for Personal Growth and Relationships

Name ________________________________
Class ________________________________

ACTIVITY LESSON 37 – I am my Brother’s Keeper
LESSON 38 – My moral Code
LESSON 39 – Learning to Relate

In the lessons above, you learned about:
- freedom requires a sense of responsibility and accountability.
- that a good life means living out the gospel values.
- to be aware of the values that are necessary in relationships.

In the case study of I am my Brother’s Keeper I learned that:
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________

What I understand by freedom and freewill is:
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________

Looking at the values I’ve chosen from the worksheet I ask myself (respond in full sentences)
Will this value bring me happiness?
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________

Is it what God wants for me?
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
Does this value show that I am loving?

__________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________

What I understand now about intimacy and commitment is:

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

The most important things I learned from these lessons is:

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

What I would like to learn more about:

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

What I didn’t understand:

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________